

People are already free to use their cellphones before taking off and immediately after landing. That is enough! Nothing would be more irritating to the MAJORITY of travellers than to have a plane full of folks talking on their phones. Please leave some peace in what has already become an uneasy place to travel these days. Yes, I do have and I do use my cellphone a lot, but PLEASE... not here!

cdc